About Sanmu Group

Jiangsu SANMU GROUP CO.,LTD, founded in 1979, is a large national hi-tech enterprise which is specialized in developing, researching and producing coating resins. It is also recognized as “the Kingdom of coating resins”.

With a total asset of over 10 billion RMB, 5500 employees, SANMU GROUP is by far the leading producer of coating resins in China. In April 2007, Jiangsu Synthetic Resins Engineering & Research Center was established in Sanmu. We are mainly producing Epoxy Resins, Amino Resins, Epoxy Acrylate, UV resins and monomers, Acrylic Resins, Alkyd Resins, Polyester Resin for powder coating, etc., and raw materials (Acrylic Acid) and solvents (PM/PMA/EAC/BAC) as well.

To provide the best-quality products and high-standard customer services is our principle. And we have received great praise from all circles of society. We constantly exploit market to achieve our goal of “SANMU GROUP, helping you to succeed”.

We wish to cooperate sincerely with people from both at home and abroad to create a bright future.
